What's the Big Deal?

Remember when Hedy was that cool friend who only spoke English? Well, now Hedy's like that polyglot pal who can hang with you at an international food festival and understand every conversation. Pretty neat, huh?

Here's the lineup of languages Hedy now understands:

• English (of course!)
• Spanish (¡Hola!)
• French (Bonjour!)
• German (Guten Tag!)
• Italian (Ciao!)
• Japanese (0S0“0k0a0o!)
• Korean (ÅH±UÕXÁ8Æ”!)
• Chinese (Mandarin) (O`Y}!)
• Dutch (Hallo!)
• Polish (Cze ± !)
• Portuguese (Olá!)
• Swedish (Hej!)
• Vietnamese (Xin chào!)
• Turkish (Merhaba!)

How Does It Work?

It's super simple! Just hop into your Hedy settings, pick the language of your meeting or lecture, and voilà! Hedy will listen and analyze the conversation in that language. It's like having a universal translator and a genius assistant rolled into one adorable AI package.

Who's Going to Love This?

• Globe-trotting business pros juggling calls with international teams
• Students braving lectures in different languages
• Anyone who's ever nodded along in a meeting while secretly wishing for subtitles

Maria, one of our awesome beta testers, shared her experience:

> "Using Hedy in my meetings with Japanese partners feels like having a secret weapon. I'm picking up on things I would've totally missed before. It's not quite mind-reading, but it's pretty close!"

What's Next on Hedy's Language Learning Journey?

We're not stopping here! Our team is already hitting the books (or should we say, training the algorithms?) to add even more languages to Hedy's repertoire. Our goal? To make Hedy the ultimate polyglot AI assistant. World domination? Nah, just world conversation!
